

AGENDA - NOVEMBER 28, 2022

When? November 28, 2022 / 2pm (CET) / Duration 3,5h

Where? ZOOM

Moderation: Lisa Witter

WELCOMING REMARKS

Asja Hanano, Welthungerhilfe

PART I – TAKING STOCK: 10 Years of VGGT

Presentation and Q&A

Marc Wegerif, VGGT+10 Initiative

Ward Anseeuw, Land Matrix Initiative

Jolyne Sanjak, Land Tenure and Property Rights at Tetra Tech ARD

Part II – THE WAY FORWARD: Improving the effectiveness of the VGGT

Break-out sessions with introductory inputs and open discussion

Session 1: Data for Accountability

The session will discuss the current development of monitoring tools and platforms to hold stakeholders accountable based on the VGGT and their scope to foster the implementation of the VGGT (Lead: LMI).

Session 2: Multi-Actor Partnership

The session will reflect on multi-actor Partnership as a tool for VGGT implementation as well as the role of different stakeholder groups (e.g., communities, civil society, government, private sector) in the implementation and the obstacles and successes in the co-operation and engagement (Lead: WHH/ILC).

Session 3: Human rights

This session will discuss the connections between human rights and the VGGT and the use of new human rights-based land governance tools for accountability and advocacy (Lead: TMG Research).

Session 4: Conflict Settings

This session will reflect on the contribution of the VGGT framework to conflict resolution/peacebuilding approaches to protect local livelihoods and food security. (Lead: FriEnt).

PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION OF RESULTS

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Martin Hoppe, Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development, Germany

Christoph Kubitza, German Institute for Global and Area Studies/ Land Matrix Initiative